

Some Reflections and Suggestions.

The Virginia Chronicle timely remarks:

The time is rapidly approaching when our citizens will again have the opportunity of exercising the American prerogative of voting. Much has been said and more remains to be said as for whom this voting is to be done, to secure for us a Senator and Representative in the Congress of the United States, a Governor, Secretary of State, et cetera, all of which is eminently proper in its place. But are these of such moment with our people as to cause them to lose sight of those things that most vitally concern the future, not only of the State but the family?

There are duties resting upon the voter that in the scramble for high places seems often to be disregarded. Not the least among them is the interest of the common schools—the shops wherein are wrought the materials for the upbuilding of our institutions. These schools should be so organized, controlled and conducted that from them our boys and girls will come panopied for a successful and honorable life conflict. But how can this be so long as our schools are run from personal consideration and for personal ends, instead of the general good, which will continue to be the deplorable condition so long as the voter is indifferent to the character and qualifications of the men he selects for Trustees? The idea that any one will do for a School Trustee is woefully vicious. It might make a little difference who represents us in the Congress of the United States, but the control of our children can never be a matter of indifference. So long as School Trustees are selected who are controlled by selfish interests, so long will our schools languish, the children suffer and the State and society and the nation be defrauded.

The office of School Trustee should not be political, yet how often is it so made, and then, as Professor Willis remarked at Reno, we find our Trustees electing incompetents, as a political reward, to develop a mind. What a spectacle! what an anomaly!

Look to it, then, fellow-citizens, what else you may do at the approaching elections, as you regard the interest and welfare of the little ones, elect School Trustees who have the intelligence to know or the courage to do what is best for our schools.

The Carson Tribune says:

The fight for the Republican nomination for Attorney General lies between Captain John F. Alexander, of Washoe county, and H. F. Lattin, of Ormsby. Some of the latter's supporters are, in order to further his chances for the nomination, are circulating reports through the State that Alexander is a drinking man and that he is to be packed home every night. While the Tribune is willing to concede that Mr. Alexander is not a Prohibitionist like his opponent, it is prepared to state that the reports that Alexander is a drunkard are base falsehoods.

It is an open question whether the Democratic party of this State does not now contain more discordant material than ever before.

A PLEASANT MEETING.—Mr. W. M. Stewart drove down from Carson yesterday morning, and on the road this side of Hufnaglers met Mr. Wm. Thompson, and after the gentlemen had exchanged the usual courtesies of the day, Mr. Stewart turned around and drove back to Carson.

Elko Convention.

Elko, September 10—11 40 A. M.
The Convention met at 9 A. M., and the report of the Committee on Order of Business and Credentials was adopted. The order of business makes the nomination of Governor first, and that of the Judges last. Adjourned until 1 P. M. when the Committee on Platform will report.
12 M.—The Platform as adopted, contains strong planks on the Labor and Chinese questions, endorses Cleveland's administration, with the exception of the silver question, claims that the Administration is following in the wake of its Republican predecessors, endorses J. G. Fair, and places him among the greatest statesmen of the age.
Elko, September 10—1 40 P. M.—I have withdrawn, Adams will be nominated by acclamation.

N. H. A. Mason.
Elko, September 10—1 44 P. M.—Mason is out of the fight. Adams will be nominated by acclamation, also Cassidy for Congress, Belknap for Judge and Day for Surveyor General.
Mason, upon whom the opposition to Adams had been united, has just sent a letter to Adams, notifying him that he has quit the fight, and Adams' nomination will be by acclamation.
Jewett W. Adams received the nomination for Governor by acclamation, all opposition having withdrawn.
The other nominations are: Lieutenant Governor, T. J. Bell, of Nye; Congressman, J. H. McMahon, of Humboldt (Cassidy declined), Supreme Judge, C. H. Belknap, of Ormsby, Controller, R. Sadler, of Eureka, Secretary of State, John F. Brady, of Storey, Attorney General, J. F. Boller, of Esmeralda, Surveyor General, Harry Day, of Ormsby, Clerk Supreme Court, J. B. McKernan, of White Pine, Supt. of Public Instruction, A. E. Kaye, Supt. State Printing, Henry Duffy, of Storey, District Judges—Harry Crosswell, of Lander, A. L. Fitzgerald and H. Rives, of Eureka.

CAUSE OF THE ACCIDENT.—Engineer Hyde, whose engine ran off the Solano near Benicia, Tuesday morning, says that the usual precautions had been taken, and that everything went right until the boat was about to enter the Benicia ship when the engine commenced to go forward. He immediately reversed her and shouted to warn the others who were on the train. Seeing that the engine refused to obey the throttle he jumped from the cab in time to escape the fate of Garvey. The others, including the conductor and two brakemen, had jumped from the caboose. He believes that the engine, as is sometimes the case, took steam of its own accord, either from defective valves or from some other unknown reason, and started. There is a very short distance to run on the boat, and not obeying the throttle nothing could be done. An engine taking steam of its own accord is not, by any means, a very rare thing, but still it is not very common. This may be caused from a defect or leak in the valves, and where the distance is so short there is very little time to reverse.

THE HARVEST MOON.—The September moon falls on the 13th, and then will be seen the most beautiful moon of all the year, the harvest moon of which poets have sung. The husbandmen of old saw in the celestial arrangement that permitted the moon to rise for four evenings after the full, with only thirty-two minutes' average difference. A providential interposition to prolong the day, and thus lend them assistance in gathering the harvest. On September 22, 10 P. M., the Autumnal equinox occurs. Night and day are then of equal length all over the globe.

SPECIAL PREMIUMS.—Elias Nichols, of Verdi, offers the following special premiums for the poultry breeders at the coming State Fair: For the best trio Plymouth Rocks, one setting of B. Leghorn eggs, for the best trio B. Leghorns, one setting of Houdan eggs, for the best trio Houdans, one setting of Plymouth R. eggs; for the best trio B. B. R. Games, one setting of W. F. B. Spanish eggs. The eggs offered above are No. 1 and worth $2.50 per 13.

THE RACERS COMING.—Mr. H. B. Luther has arrived from California with four running horses which will remain at the Fair ground till after the State Fair closes.

BUSH STREET THEATER.—A good house well and Mrs. B. In Moore last evening. The new comedy drama "A Mountain Pink." The play possesses many interesting and dramatic situations that carry it to a pleasant denouement. The characters are divided between "historians, first families, moonshiners and revenues. Miss Moore, of course takes the leading part, Sincerity Weeks, "The Mountain Pink," and shows herself to be a bright actress with the capability of doing a great deal of effective work. Frank Henning is very good as Harold Wilmet, a New Yorker, who is looking for a girl named Nondas, for whom he holds a fortune in trust, and who is supposed to have been hidden by the moonshiners. The characters of Nondas and Felix Connery, the captain of the Moonshiners—the villain of the plot, are well sustained by Maud Midgely and T. M. Hardy. The remainder of the cast is in good hands.—San Francisco Chronicle.
At the Nevada Theater, Reno Sept. 20th

STATE CONVENTION DELEGATES.—The following is a list of the delegates to the State Convention, from Ormsby county, which will be voted for at the Republican primaries to-day.

Carson precinct—E. R. Elrod, T. R. Hofer, W. M. Little, George O. Thaxter, P. A. Doyle, George Hark, C. W. Thompson, A. Livingston.
Empire precinct—James Morris, J. P. Woodbury, John Barclay.
The above ticket was selected by the Ormsby county candidates for State offices, and is unpledged.

As it am de roughness of de grandstun which shapens de ax, so it am de troubles of life which aige up de human mind,
Gray ha's an entitled to respect only when the owners of gray heads respect themselves.
It doan' do any good to light a candle arter you have been eatin' wormy apples in de dark.
De pussen who judges of de speed of a mule by his bray mustn't complain if everybody passes him on de road.
De pussen who am neber tempted de-serves no puthkier credit for obeyin' de law.
De less advice you gin widout pay de mo' credit you will receive for bein' chuck full o' wisdom.
Men who expect to be treated just as you treat dem will neither slander nor abuse you.
Between readin' a man's character by his bumps and goin' on a picnic wid him, take de picnic.
What we calkerlate on doin' for to-morrow won't pay de grocer fur taters nor de butcher for soup-bone.
Doan' be too hard on human natur'. De man who kin sot down an' tell you exactly what dis kentry needs to make her great an' glorious may have no ideal whar' his nex' bar'l of flour am comin' from.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-awf-ly
